

Learning Competency:

“Commit your work to the Lord, and your plans will be established.”
 Proverbs 16:3

Activity 1: What is your idea about commitment base on the picture?
 Write your answer at least 2-3 sentences on the space provided.

A large, empty rectangular box with rounded corners and a blue border, designed for writing an answer. The box contains several horizontal lines for text entry.

The first verb, commit, is a word that, in Hebrew, literally means “to roll.” Other passages such as Genesis 29:3 and Psalm 22:8–9 likewise use the idea of “rolling” something to the Lord. The idea is that we completely give something over to God in dependence upon Him. When we “commit” our work to the Lord, we offer everything we do completely to Him.

Breaking Down the Key Parts of Proverbs 16:3

#1 “Commit to the Lord...”

believism is the folly of praying a prayer to “ask Jesus into your heart”—not a phrase found in Scripture—and then assuming you can live the rest of your life your own way with your “get out of hell for free” card. Instead, what God wants is commitment to him and his ways. Lay your life down. Take up your cross (Mt. 16:24). Die to yourself, and live unto God (Gal. 2:20). Commit to the Lord.

#2 “...whatever you do,”

If you are living a life that “whatever you do” cannot be committed to the Lord, go back to square one. Do you believe that without God you are a sinner who deserves his wrath? Believe in Jesus, and give him your life. He promises an abundant life when we leave our old self behind and follow him as his disciple (1st Peter 5:7). Leave nothing back, but give everything to God.

#3 “and he will establish your plans.”

The double meaning here is that God will put the right plans, the ones according to his will, into your heart. His plans will become your plans. And then he will make those plans succeed. There is absolutely no reason to fret, ever. There is no cause for anxiety. God is the one who will establish you and your plans. If something isn’t working, it isn’t God, because what God wants to work will work. It is a tremendous blessing to find peace in that truth. Sadly much energy is wasted worrying when Christians think it is their job to “establish” their plans. When you commit all to him and live according to his ways there will be peace, joy, contentment, and abundance.
